

Since adding my name to the Indiana tele-marketing no call list, my calls have dropped from several per week to no more than one per week. This has done more for my privacy than any other program to my knowledge.